

STOCKTON
UNIVERSITY

GLOBAL ENGAGEMENT

FACULTY-LED STUDY ABROAD PROGRAM

GHANA

January 3-13, 2022

Join Dr. Alphonso Ogbuehi and Dr. Donnetrice Allison exploring

GHANA

AFRI 3125 West Africa Now
& GIS 4671 Contemporary African Culture and Business

Students will have the opportunity to visit local companies and cultural sites in Ghana.

HIGHLIGHTS:

- Travel to Cape Coast and Elmina to see slave castles and the starting point of the transatlantic slave trade
- Visit the Ashanti region to explore the traditional chieftaincy institution, history and culture
- Visit Kakum National Park and the beach
- Visit and learn about local companies, the business environment, and the Young African Leadership Initiative

For more information, email Alphonso Ogbuehi, dean of the School of Business, at Alphonso.Ogbuehi@stockton.edu, Donnetrice Allison, professor of Africana Studies, at Donnetrice.Allison@stockton.edu or the Office of Global Engagement at oge@stockton.edu.

stockton.edu/global-engagement

609-626-5532 | F 101-k

Stockton is an Equal Opportunity Institution