

MASTER OF ARTS IN COUNSELING

Program Highlights

- Educates and trains students about the best practices in mental health and human services for a variety of settings
- 60-credit program with electives that cover topics such as schools, the criminal justice system, play therapy and specialized clinical populations
- Graduates are eligible to take the National Counselor Exam to become a Nationally Certified Counselor (NCC)
- Classes are held at Stockton's Kramer Hall in Hammonton, NJ

Admissions Criteria

- Baccalaureate degree
- Minimum GPA of 3.0
- Prerequisite knowledge in Statistics, Experimental Psychology, Child Development and/or Personality Psychology
- Complete an online application with the following:
 - $50 application fee
 - Graduate application essay
 - Three letters of recommendation
 - If cumulative GPA is below a 3.51, the GRE is required
 - Resume
 - Official transcripts from all colleges/universities attended (incl. Stockton)

