

DOCTOR OF PHYSICAL THERAPY

Program Highlights

- Develops students into physical therapists who work directly with patients to conduct evaluations and address problems such as impaired movement, pain, and compromised ability to carry out daily tasks
- 111-credit program that includes core courses and clinical experiences
- Accredited by the Commission on Accreditation in Physical Therapy Education (CAPTE)
- Stockton undergraduates can apply traditionally or through the 3+3 program

Admissions Criteria

- Baccalaureate degree
- Minimum GPA of 3.2
- Successful completion of prerequisite courses
- Complete a PTCAS Application with the following:
 - Graduate application essay
 - Three letters of recommendation
 - GRE scores
 - Resume
 - Official transcripts from all colleges/universities attended (including Stockton)

