

THE PROSECUTORS

Film Screening and Panel

Monday, March 9 • 6 p.m. • Campus Center Theatre

Victims dismissed as “collateral damage”. Survivors silenced. Criminals left unpunished.
This is the history of sexual violence in conflict that lawyers are trying to change.

The Prosecutors is a feature length documentary that tells the story of three dedicated lawyers who fight to ensure that rape in war is not met with impunity. Filmed over five years on three continents, it takes viewers from the Democratic Republic of Congo to Bosnia and Herzegovina to Colombia on the long journey towards justice.

Join us for a screening of The Prosecutors followed by an interactive panel discussion with Dr. Lauren Balasco (POLS), Dr. Tina Zappile (POLS), Dr. Christina Morus (COMM), and POLS student Mariam Eskandar.

Sponsored by the Stockton American Democracy Project/Political Engagement Project, the Global Studies minor, the Master of Arts of Holocaust and Genocide Studies, Model United Nations and Amnesty International
