

Sweeney to Hold Town Hall Meeting at Stockton Atlantic City April 3

Media Advisory: Coverage invited

March 28, 2019

Galloway, N.J. _ Stockton University will host a town hall meeting with N.J. Senate President Steve Sweeney from 3-5 p.m. on Wednesday, April 3 in the Fannie Lou Hamer room at the Stockton University Atlantic City Academic Center, 3711 Atlantic Ave. Atlantic City.

Sen. Sweeney will discuss his Path to Progress (the report of the New Jersey Economic and Fiscal Policy Working Group), which will be followed by a town hall style question-and-answer session with the audience. The report covers pension and benefit reform, education reform, county and municipal government reform and shared services, and state and local government tax structure.

The Town Hall is co-sponsored by the Southern New Jersey Development Council and the William J. Hughes Center for Public Policy at Stockton.

The event will be moderated by Stockton alumna Brigid Callahan Harrison, a political science and law professor at Montclair State University and John Froomjian from the Hughes Center.

This is one of several town hall meetings Sweeney has held around the state. It is free and open to the public, but seating is limited. There is free parking in the Stockton lot on Hartford Avenue.
