Galloway Township, NJ- The Richard Stockton College of New Jersey's Africana Studies program, in partnership with the Unified Black Students Society, will celebrate its 30th anniversary on Friday, April 11, 2014 at 7 p.m. The "Old School Meets New School" event will take place in the Campus Center Event Room located on the college's main campus in Galloway.

Stockton faculty, staff, administrators, students and alumni invite members of the community to join this "monster throw down" celebration which will offer Southern-style soul food, drinks, program, dancing and conversation. Musical entertainment will be presented by Coast 2 Coast Productions' "Aces" Band.

The evening will also feature a special tribute to retiring faculty member Dr. Linda Williamson Nelson, professor of Anthropology and Africana Studies.

Tickets are $20 in advance, or $25 at the door. To reserve your tickets, E-mail Donnetrice.Allison@stockton.edu, Allison.Sinanan@stockton.edu, or Pat.Reid-Merritt@stockton.edu.
