Galloway Township, NJ- The Richard Stockton College of New Jersey has released its Fall 2013 Dean's List, including students from your area. The spreadsheet is organized by county for your convenience. You will find the students' names, year, first major, second major (if any), home town, county and zip code and you can sort the list by any of the categories.

The Richard Stockton College of New Jersey's Dean's List is generated each fall and spring term. Students earning 12 or more credits in a given term are considered for the Dean's List using the criteria for full-time students. Students earning between eight and 11 credits are eligible for the Dean's List using the criteria for part-time students.
