

Stockton Manahawkin Site Hosting Free Internet Security and Storm Preparedness Program

Officers from Stafford and Long Beach Township Police Departments to Share Knowledge with Community Aug. 3

For Immediate Release

Wednesday, July 15, 2015

Contact: Susan Allen
News and Media Relations
Galloway Township, NJ 08205
Susan.Allen@stockton.edu
(609) 652-4790

Galloway Township, NJ – Stockton University's Manahawkin Instructional Site is partnering with the Stafford Township and Long Beach Township Police Departments to offer a free program, "Internet Security & Storm Preparedness" on Monday, Aug. 3, 2015.

The program will focus on topics related to the internet and online security including how it works, why it matters and what one can do to defend oneself and one's family and business against cyberattacks. The program will also cover the hazards that may impact the region during storms and train participants in basic disaster response skills, such as fire safety, light search and rescue, and disaster medical operations.

Officer Christopher Fritz, of Stafford Township Police Department, and Officer Megan E. Keller, of Long Beach Township Police Department, will present the program from 11 a.m. to 1 p.m. at Stockton's Manahawkin Instructional Site, located at 712 E. Bay Ave.

For more information about the Manahawkin site, visit www.stockton.edu/manahawkin. Please RSVP to 609-626-3883 or manahawkin@stockton.edu.

#