

PHOTO RELEASE

Stockton Seaview Hotel and Golf Club Preserves the Present For Future Discovery 100th Anniversary Celebration Capped Off with Time Capsule Dedication

(GALLOWAY, N.J.) November 13, 2014 – Stockton President Dr. Herman Saatkamp presided over a unique burial Wednesday, November 12 at Stockton Seaview Hotel & Golf Club. Stockton Seaview dedicated a time capsule on the occasion of its 100th Anniversary Wednesday, preserving the present for future discovery. Instead of tears and goodbyes, Dr. Saatkamp, aided by Seaview General Manager Andrew Stegen and Stockton Seaview Executive Director Rummy Pandit, dedicated a cheerful toast to a long and prosperous future for the famed hotel and golf club as the time capsule was sealed and covered over with soil. The time capsule location will be marked with a stone plaque for future resort employees to unearth on Stockton Seaview's 200th Anniversary in the year 2114.

High resolution photos of the time capsule dedication ceremony are available for download by visiting the following link: Stockton Seaview Time Capsule Photos.

The time capsule, which is 33.4" X 26.3" X 12" in dimension with a volume of 5.9 cubic feet and weighing just over 50 pounds, contains a range of curated items and memorabilia that represent Seaview and other Stockton-affiliated entities, notable South Jersey establishments, and objects that reflect today's society including:

- DVD of Stockton Seaview's most recent television commercial
- Stockton Seaview staff photo
- Official menu from the Grille Room
- Hotel room key
- Wedding album featuring a 2014 collection of Seaview's brides, bridal announcements, wedding reception menus and other wedding memories as selected by the resort's brides
- An official 2014 Stockton College Yearbook
- Specially commissioned 100th Anniversary Stockton Seaview Commemorative Yearbook
- Video commentary from Dr. Herman Saatkamp stored on a thumb drive

- Official golf course flags from both the Bay and Pines courses, official golf course Score Cards and Yardage Books
- A 2014 manufactured putter
- Stockton Seaview logoed golf apparel, and a sleeve of golf balls
- Official pin flag from the ShopRite LPGA Classic
- Hand carved and painted wood duck decoy from the Noyes Museum of Art of Stockton College
- 2014 Calendar of Events from the Atlantic City Convention & Visitors Authority
- Two menus (a 1950s menu and a current-day menu) from Fred & Ethel's Lantern Light Tavern located in Historic Smithville, N.J., as well as a book on prominent South Jersey developers Fred and Ethel Noyes
- A light bulb
- Regional daily newspapers

Seaview's time capsule dedication culminates a series of events over the past several months that have celebrated the legacy and impact of South Jersey's most prominent hotel and golf resort throughout the past century. From its origins as an exclusive private club in 1914 to the renowned leisure and convention destination that it is today, Stockton Seaview has created an unforgettable resort experience for U.S. presidents, championship golfers, students, business officials, local residents, and visitors – and will continue to lead the way in unparalleled hospitality for the next 100 years.

###

Media Contacts:

Fish With Feet, LLC

Cathleen Kiernan, President

609-601-8379 Office

609-705-0601 Mobile

ckiernan@fishwithfeet.com