Galloway Twp., NJ -- The Richard Stockton College of New Jersey Dance Club will present its Fourth Annual Showcase 7:30 p.m. on April 19, 20, and 21 in the Performing Arts Center Experimental Theatre.

The evening includes original choreography by Stockton dance students as well as a jazz number created by faculty member Andrea Mychaels to live jazz music performed by Stockton's small jazz ensemble. According to Ran Ross, Assistant Professor of Dance, Mychaels' new work showcases both the dance program and music representing the College's new minor in Jazz Studies.

"Stockton's dance program continues to grow," Ross said. "This show is an exciting opportunity for the community to see how students express their interest in dance through their choreography. The styles include modern, ballet, jazz, tap and hip-hop. There is something for everyone."

Tickets are $5 and can be purchased through the Stockton Performing Arts Center Box office by calling 609-652-9000.
