I. POLICY:

- A. Any full-time employee who plans to qualify and run for a public office should advise the President in writing ten days prior to their qualifying.
- B. Before qualifying for a public office, the University employee should review his plans as a potential candidate with his/her immediate supervisor to determine if the requirements for conducting the campaign or the requirements of the position, if elected, will interfere with his/her duties.
- C. If such a determination is made and is supported by the President, the University employee should either resign or request leave of absence without pay for such period of time as is determined by the President to be in the best interest of the University. The President's recommendation will be considered by the Board of Trustees during their next scheduled meeting.
