The University is committed to promoting the health and positive development of its employees and recognizes that in order to accomplish this goal, it must implement programs that will enable the University to achieve its objectives in a cost effective manner, while respecting the rights of its employees. With this in mind, the University makes every reasonable attempt to establish a work environment that is free, directly and indirectly, from the adverse effects of drug and alcohol abuse. The University will be sure that the workplace is free from potentially adverse effects of drug and alcohol use through the establishment of effective means to detect and deal with drug and alcohol abuse and will insure compliance with applicable federal and state laws and regulations.

Employees are also expected not to engage in any drug or alcohol-related conduct while off duty that may affect their work performance. No employee shall be under the influence of alcohol or any substance that may impair their ability to perform their duties or may present a safety risk to themselves or others at any time when engaged in their employment. An employee is a representative of the University and should act accordingly. Violation of this rule shall subject the employee to discipline up to and including discharge.
