Stockton University
Psi Chi Psychology Conference
Campus Theater
May 1, 2025

8.30 - 9:00am – Light Breakfast (Campus Center Theater [CCT] Hallway)

9.05 - 9.15am – Welcome and Introductory Remarks (CCT)

Dr. Helana Girgis, Psi Chi Advisor

Autumn Bott, Psi Chi President

9:15 – 9.30am – Scholarship Awards

Keith B. Williams Psychology Merit Scholar Awards

Amta Azeem, Katherine Wilkinson, Nicholas Bove, Olivia Bereza

Hughes Family Fund Awards

Mikaili Philbert, Katherine Wilkinson, Payton Eckell, Arwyn Russell

9.30 - 9.50am – Anna Caputo, BS Psychology ('23), MA Data Science and Engineering

Research Experience in Psychology

9.50 - 10.50am Project for Distinction Presentations

Matthew Yeager, Meaning in Life in Individuals with Dysautonomia

Payton Eckell, Understanding the Role of Trust in Sexual Assault Help-Seeking

Autumn Bott, The Impact of Food Packaging Color on the Perceived Healthfulness of Food

10.50 - 11.-35am Distinguished Alumni Award and Presentation

Dr. Jean Gwathney, Director & Supervisor of Special Education for Wildwood Public City School District

Pathways of a School Psychologist

Presenters of the Award: Psychology Club Student Executive Board

11.35am - 12.00pm Psi Chi Induction Ceremony

Group photo at the end of the ceremony

12.00 - 1.00pm Keynote Speaker

Dr. Bianca Villalobos and Dr. Juventino Hernandez Rodriguez, Associate Professors, Department of Psychology, California State University Northridge, Licensed Psychologists, Co-Directors of the SALUD lab.

Addressing Mental Health Disparities Among Under-Resourced Communities

1.00 – 2.00pm - Lunch (CCT Hallway)

2.00 – 3.00pm – Project for Distinction Presentations

Katherine Wilkinson, Understanding Hyperfocus in ADHD

Chelsea Ray, The Effect of Learning About Workplace Gender Discrimination on Feelings of Powerlessness and Ambivalent Sexism

Mikaili Philbert, Navigating Challenges: The Impact of Learning Disabilities on Academic Resilience, Learning Styles, & GPA Among Diverse College Students

3.00 – 3.30pm – Poster Presentations