

The Psychology Department is pleased to welcome Dr. Rachel Pruchno, author of "Surrounded by Madness: A Memoir of Illness and Family Secrets" to our Psi Chi conference Friday April 17th. All are welcome to attend. ULTRA credit is available.

Dr. Pruchno will discuss the stigma attached to mental illness, how the health care system is not designed to accommodate mental illness, and how the legal system works against families. She will be available to sign copies of her book following her talk.

Psi Chi Undergraduate Research Conference

April 17, 2015

Board of Trustees Room
Campus Center

8:30-9:30: Breakfast

9:30-9:35: Introductory Remarks

Dr. Rob Foels, Psi Chi Advisor & Allison Salvati, Psi Chi President

9:35-9:45: Scholarship Awards

Hughes Family Fund:

Marwah Bhatti; Kara Burrows; Michael Tumminia

Keith B. Williams Psychology Merit Scholar Awards:

Jordan Caplan; Stefanie Newman

9:45-10:00: Presenting Research at a Psychology Conference

Nicole Schoenstein, Psi Chi Vice President

10:00-10:30: Distinction Project Presentation

Nicollette Krenzien

10:30-12:00: Keynote Address

Dr. Rachel Pruchno, Rowan University

Surrounded By Madness: A Memoir of Mental Illness and Family Secrets

12:00-12:45: Lunch and Dr. Pruchno book signing

12:45-1:00: Distinguished Alumni Award

Dr. John Bulevich, presenter

Dr. Elizabeth Shobe, recipient

1:00-1:30: Psi Chi Induction Ceremony

1:30-2:00: Research Poster Presentations