

106th Anniversary of the Armenian Genocide: Commemoration and Panel Discussion

Tuesday, April 27, 2021 | 5:00 – 7:00 PM | Online via Zoom

(Zoom link below)

With featured speakers:

Allan Arpajian

Susan Arpajian Jolley

Dr. Asya Darbinyan

Diana Markosian

Silvina der Meguerditchian

Join us via zoom

<https://stockton.zoom.us/j/96989962583>

In commemoration of the 106th Anniversary of the Armenian Genocide, the Master of Arts in Holocaust and Genocide Studies and Visual Arts Programs at Stockton University are pleased to present a panel discussion featuring Armenian authors, artists and scholars. Featured speakers include: Allan Arpajian and Susan Arpajian Jolley, authors of Out of My Great Sorrows: The Armenian Genocide and Artist Mary Zakarian (winner of the Minas and Kohar Tololyan Prize in Contemporary Literature in 2019), Dr. Asya Darbinyan, Visiting Research Scholar at Clark University, and artists Diana Markosian and Silvina der Meguerditchian. The conversation will be moderated by Ryann Casey, Stockton University Adjunct Professor of Photography, Art History and Critical Theory, and Mariana Smith, Stockton University Assistant Professor of Visual Arts.

OSPREYADVANTAGE
YOUR CO-CURRICULAR RECORD

For New Jersey Educators:
2.0 PDH (Professional Development Hours)

Thank you to our cosponsors at Stockton University: Holocaust & Genocide Studies Minor, Jewish Studies Minor, Judge Gerald & Claire Weinstein Professorship in Jewish Studies, Migration Studies Minor, Sara & Sam Schoffer Holocaust Resource Center, and the School of General Studies.