Galloway Twp., NJ – The Richard Stockton College of New Jersey will present a holiday choral event featuring a number of choirs from throughout the state of New Jersey on Sunday, December 9, 2007 at 7:30 P.M. The event is set to take place in the I-Wing Gymnasium of the Galloway Township campus.

Christmas, Hanukah and Kwanzaa songs will be performed. Dancers and choirs from Toms River, Margate, a special guest choir, the Stockton College Chorus, the Stockton Oratorio Society & Chorale will be featured. The evening includes over 200 performers and international elements that incorporate a song to be performed in Korean and the evening is highlighted by a Swahili duet by Rev. and Mrs. Kwame Rubadiri, originally hailing from Nairobi, Kenya.

Tickets for the concert are $8 for the general public, $6 for senior citizens and students with ID. If the event is not sold out in advance, tickets will be available at the door on the evening of the performance. Tickets may be purchased at the Stockton Performing Arts Center Box Office. For more ticket information call (609) 652-9000 or e-mail pac@stockton.edu.
