Galloway Township, NJ- The Stockton Center on Successful Aging (SCOSA) is pleased to present “Make a Bread Basket Workshop” at The Noyes Museum of Art of Stockton College, 733 Lily Lake Road, Oceanville, Galloway Township. The workshop is scheduled for Saturday, July 14, 2012 from 10:30 a.m. to 12:30 p.m.

Niki Giberson, owner of Swan Bay Folk Art Center in Port Republic, will guide participants through the creation of a hand-woven bread basket. This 8” x 10” seagrass accented basket is a great beginner project as it incorporates weaving and twining methods and oak handles. Each participant will leave with a completed basket in this two-hour workshop. There is a $10.00 fee charged for each participant that covers the cost of materials.

Advance registration is required. Call or stop by the Noyes Museum to register (609-652-8848). Visit the SCOSA website (www.stockton.edu/scosa) for details and updates.
