

Stockton Center on Successful Aging Presents Financial Management Workshop for Older Adults

'Avoiding Scams & Identity Theft' to be held in Hammonton on July 7

For Immediate Release

Tuesday, June 10, 2016

Contact:      Christina Butterfield
                    News and Media Relations
                    Galloway, NJ 08205
                    Christina.Butterfield@stockton.edu
                    (609) 626-3845

Galloway Township, NJ – The Stockton Center on Successful Aging (SCOSA) is sponsoring a free workshop titled, "Avoiding Scams & Identity Theft," for older adults on Thursday, July 7 at 11 a.m. at the Hammonton Canoe Club Senior Center, located at 100 Sports Drive in Hammonton, N.J. Older adults from the community are invited to attend the free event. Light refreshments provided by Hammonton Canoe Club.

Jennifer Fox of Money Management International, a non-profit credit counseling service, will facilitate the workshop.

Fox will explore the most common identity theft scams and instruct participants how to protect their identity, money and credit history. Participants will also learn how to safeguard their information, monitor their credit report for signs of possible identity theft, and take action if falling victim to identity theft.

Register online or call 609-626-3591. Visit the SCOSA website at www.stockton.edu/scosa for more information, updates and cancellation procedures.

# #