Galloway Twp., NJ- Dr. Beverly Vaughn, Professor of Music at The Richard Stockton College of New Jersey, is seeking singers to take part in the annual holiday choral performance on December 9.

"We welcome people of all experience levels to take part in what promises to be an entertaining event for the audience and a lot of fun for the performers," said Dr. Beverly Vaughn, Professor of Music. "We welcome individuals and groups. If you are a little shy, bring a friend along. The more participation we have, the better the show."

The event is set for Sunday December 9, 2012, and will take place in I-wing Gymnasium on the Galloway campus at 7:30 p.m. It will include works from Handel's "Judas Maccabeus" and carols by John Rutter.

Interested singers should come to weekly rehearsals on Mondays at 7:30 p.m. in Alton Auditorium (A-Wing) on the main campus of The Richard Stockton College of New Jersey.
