

STOCKTON COLLEGE

THE RICHARD STOCKTON COLLEGE OF NEW JERSEY

Stockton Center on Successful Aging Sponsors Tour of Noyes Museum of Art

Tour of Museum and Touch Tour of the Exhibition
"Touch: Beyond Sight" scheduled for Wednesday, May 18, 2011

For Immediate Release

Thursday, May 05, 2011

Contact: Tim Kelly
 Office of Public Relations
 Galloway Township, NJ 08240
 Tim.Kelly@stockton.edu
 (609) 652-4950

Galloway Township, NJ- The Stockton Center on Successful Aging (SCOSA) is sponsoring a tour of the Noyes Museum of Art, located on 733 Lily Lake Road in Oceanville (Galloway) on Wednesday, May 18, 2011 at 2:00 pm. Older adults are invited to attend the tour. The Noyes Museum of Art is charging a $5.00 fee for the tour, payable at the door.

Touch: Beyond Sight brings an innovative exhibition and the exploration of new ways of seeing. For audiences young and old, seeing or not, this interactive exhibition is based on the fundamental belief that vision extends far beyond the body's eyes. The Noyes is presenting the following artists: Carol Cole, Sandra De Sando, Rosalyn Driscoll, Seward Johnson, Bonnie Kemske, Paul Rigby, Herb Rosenberg Carol Saylor, and Jesse Walp.

For more information on the exhibit contact Saskia Schmidt at 609-652-8848, ext. 303. Information on SCOSA and scheduled events can be found on their website at www.stockton.edu/scosa .

#