

STOCKTON UNIVERSITY

PASS/NO CREDIT GRADING OPTION CONTRACT

Students must earn 12 credits (including Transfer) before permission to enroll in the pass/no credit grade mode can be granted.

This form must be submitted to the Office of Student Records by the end of the Drop/Add period for the term specified below.

TERMS:

1. This decision is irrevocable. I cannot at a later time opt to have the grade received in this course changed to the A-F grading system.
2. Some programs will not count credits in this grade mode as meeting program degree requirements. I have checked with my Preceptor or Program Coordinator of my major and I understand the requirements of my Program.
3. The number of credits graded in the pass/no credit mode which can be applied toward meeting graduation requirements is limited to 10% of the total number of Stockton credits which must be earned to satisfy all graduation requirements. I understand the limitation on the applicability of these credits toward meeting graduation requirements.
4. This course will not be factored into calculation of the student's GPA.
5. Students on probation cannot opt for the pass/no credit grade mode. I understand this policy and certify that I am not on probation.
6. Only one course per term can be taken in the pass/no credit grade mode. I certify that this is the only course I am taking this term in the pass/no credit mode.
